A mediation/settlement conference in this case is hereby scheduled before United States Magistrate Judge Richard A. Lanzillo for Wednesday, December 29, 2021, beginning at 10:00 a.m. and will be conducted by Zoom video conference. The Parties and Counsel must be available for the entire day. Set forth below are the procedures the Court requires the Parties to follow and which the Court will employ in conducting the video mediation.

1. Zoom Video Conference Information

Participants in the mediation shall join the video conference at 9:55 a.m. Instructions for accessing the Zoom conference will be sent to Counsel via a separate email prior to that date and time. The Court has the ability to place participants in separate caucus or “waiting” rooms to facilitate confidential communications among counsel and clients/representatives as well as separate caucuses with the judge. Counsel and their clients are encouraged to test their Zoom conference technology in advance of the mediation to minimize the potential for delays on the day of the mediation. Counsel may contact Judge Lanzillo’s Courtroom Deputy, Debra

Mayo, at 814-464-9610 or debra_mayo@pawd.uscourts.gov, if they or their clients have any questions regarding the Zoom video conference arrangements. General scheduling or logistical inquiries may also be made to Staff Attorney John B. Heasley at (814) 874-5908 or via email at john_heasley@pawd.uscourts.gov.

2. Pre-Mediation/Settlement Telephone Conference with Judge Lanzillo

In lieu of an exchange of positions, the Court will conduct separate, pre-settlement caucuses with each side's counsel prior to the settlement conference. The Court will contact counsel directly to schedule these sessions.

3. Attendance of Parties Required

Parties having full and complete settlement authority are required to personally participate in the video conference unless Judge Lanzillo and the Parties have otherwise agreed during the pre-mediation telephone conference, in which case the representative shall remain available to participate by telephone or to join in the video conference as necessary.

4. Mediation/Settlement Format

The Court will use a facilitative mediation format. The mediation/settlement conference will begin with a joint session.

The joint session shall be followed by private caucusing by the Court with each party. In caucus, you should discuss information which may assist in working toward a resolution, but which you would prefer not to disclose in direct negotiations. The caucuses are also utilized to provide an opportunity to assess realistic options for resolution, without endangering any Party's negotiation posture. Caucusing will continue until an option has been developed which all sides deem acceptable.

The Court expects both the lawyers and the Party representatives to be fully prepared to participate. The Court encourages all parties to keep an open mind in order to reassess their previous positions and to consider creative means for resolving the dispute.

5. Confidentiality

All statements made in the course of joint sessions, including opening presentations, are confidential settlement discussions. Statements may not be used in discovery and are inadmissible at trial. Any statements made or information disclosed to the Court in private caucus is privileged and disclosure cannot be compelled under any circumstances.

DATED this 20th day of December, 2021.

BY THE COURT:

RICHARD A. LANZILLO
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
